ALMA MATER

On through years of fame and glory,
 Shrined in memories new and old,
 Proudly stands our Alma Mater,
 Loved by hearts as pure as gold.

On through life thy spirit lingers,
 Guiding us wher-e'er we be;
 Loyal hearts will always echo,
 "Alma Mater, hail to thee!"

CHORUS

May thy motto always guide us;
 "Fac et Spera" must prevail!
 Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
 Dear old Spartan High School, hail!

In Memoriam

RICHARD O. DORBRITZ

His life was gentle, and the elements
So mixed in him that Nature might stand up
And say to all the world "This was a man!"

The students of Spartanburg High cannot forget Mr. Dorbritz. All those whose lives were touched by his devotion to his work and his exemplary traits revere him. Those who felt his kind, unassuming presence bring light and goodness to them will forever love him. His band, who were patiently taught and guided by him, will constantly be grateful for his boundless energy and perseverance. The faculty will always admire his dedication to duty and his respect for truth.

We who knew him and loved him as an example of excellence will always cherish his memory. Everyone who witnessed the miracle of his courage and strength during his illness can never lose sight of his bravery and virtue.

The nobility of his example has brightened the way for us all.

The 1961
Spartana
Is Dedicated To . . .

Wally Dean

In thankful acknowledgment of his adherence to duty, his unequalled attainments in the field of coaching, and his display of his own sportsmanship and sense of fair play, we the Seniors of Spartanburg High School, dedicate the 1961 SPARTANA to COACH WALLY DEAN.

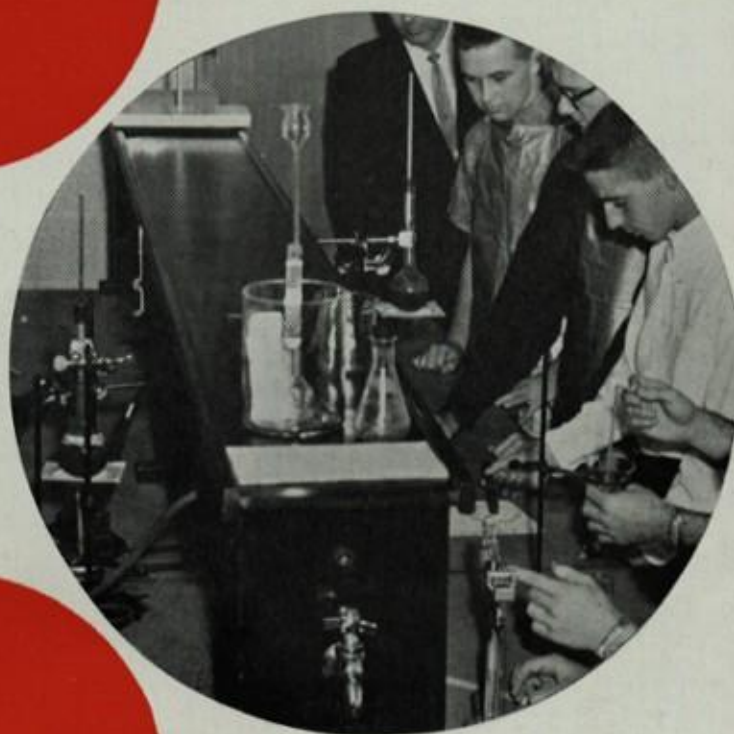

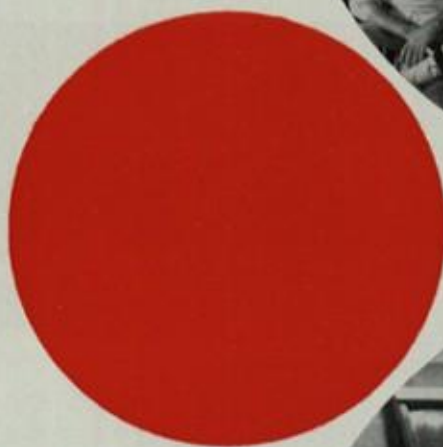

FOREWORD

SPARTANBURG HIGH SCHOOL! What respect! What joy! What pride! We, her students, feel when we hear this awe-inspiring appellation. Hers is a name to be cherished. Yes, but S.H.S. is more than a name; S.H.S. is a being—a more than wonderful being. S.H.S. is a being with character, the quintessence of the soul. Let us turn together through these pages and let Her reveal to us Her character through Her spirit, Her mind, and Her body.

Since high school students are often unsure of their goals in high school and in life, Spartan High's four guidance counselors, Miss Lillian Grant, Miss Elizabeth Otts, Mr. Richard Gettys and Mr. Charles Cummins, aid students in deciding their course in the future. Private consultations are held with each student, and students usually request additional help. The sophomore entering S.H.S. often is dumbfounded by his new maturity in secondary schools and the fact that college or a job is only three years away. The guidance officers advise such students in planning a high school curricular and in furthering his education or obtaining a business position. All students are grateful for this sage advice, which guides them through the most difficult adjusting period in life.

Have really enjoyed having this you in class. Best year, Joyce. Best back in the future. S. Gault

The class of 1961 at Spartanburg High is a record-breaking group. This year's seniors were the last class to attend school at the old building. They were the first class to engage in the accelerated program for exceptional students. Nineteen merit semi-finalists were produced from their ranks, the highest number in the state. Two seniors were president of two state-wide organizations. Graduating seniors on the athletic teams led their respective squads to outstanding records. Seniors elected to the Student Council greatly aided the "How to Study" program presented at S.H.S. in January and February.

The class of 1961 can leave Spartan High with a feeling of real accomplishment, for it has set a record-breaking pace for succeeding classes to equal.

JUNIORS

In the Autumn of 1959 a bewildered group of sophomores became the first students to attend the new Spartan High for the three full years. There was some comfort in the fact that no one else, including teachers, knew his way around the magnificent new structure. The class of 1962 gained pride from the knowledge that it was taking part in the forming of a new era, a new tradition, at Spartanburg High School.

This fall, when sophomores became juniors, they became prominent members of the S.H.S. family. Perches of importance awaited them on all the different branches of the spreading scholastic tree. Suddenly, there was a younger, "greener" class to look after and with this class a duty to set an example as upper classmen. The prosperous year rolled by for the juniors, and they became entrenched in habits of success at Spartan High.

In the Spring came the shocking revelation to the juniors that they would soon be seniors. They were to be the next club presidents, the future Student Council chief, the new head cheerleaders, the editor of the SPARTANA and Scribbler for 1961-1962. And soon came the mantle of leadership for the rising seniors, the cloak of responsibility for the "old" students. And it seemed only yesterday they had peered through the glass corridors for the first time.

At the beginning of the last chapter of their lives in secondary schools, sophomores look forward to the future with eagerness and expectancy. In their three years at Spartanburg High these young, sometimes inconspicuous students may shape their lives. They will surely gather an abundance of happy memories and worthwhile experiences that they will remember and profit by throughout life.

High school is a puzzling thing to a sophomore. One reason for this is that the new high school student has heard so many varied and confusing rumors about high school. Yet when that first disconcerting week or two of stumbling about the numerous wings of the rambling building on DuPre Drive is over, the sophomore feel right at home.

Then during a year of hard new work the sophomore rises in importance and stature, and looks forward to the next two wonderful years at high school.

Science, French and English, yes, but we also learn the trades. Here the officers of the new T. & I. Club inspect some equipment on Oil Street.

"HERE AND THERE AROUND" S.H.S.

Mrs. Smith helps students find their way to the rooms on the first day of school.

Tea time—a pleasant break, be it tea, coke, pepsi or coffee. Miss Tolbert's Home Economics rooms always has wonderful aromas filling the room.

How we go isn't important—just so we make the S.H.S. games.

Metracal anyone? After Mrs. Gault's lunches each day—we need a diet.

Two minutes to go in the Byrnes vs Spartan High game.

The perfect end to a perfect year!

Mind . . .

OFFICERS. Left to Right: Margaret Love, Vice-President; Sandra Scott, Secretary; Cherie Redwine, Treasurer, Jim Hambright, President.

Mrs. Ballenger holds the seal of the National Honor Society as Tom Shapiro grips his gavel as he frequently did at the South Carolina National Honor Society convention which was held at Spartan High this year.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Perhaps the most difficult and therefore the most worthwhile club into which a Spartan High student can enter is the National Honor Society. Students must maintain a 3.5 or B+ academic rating to enter into and remain in the club. This year, however, the club ruled that students transferring to S.H.S. have to win the 3.5 average for less time than they formerly were required.

Mrs. Mildred Ballenger and a new sponsor, Mrs. Sandra Warlick advise members, who meet on the first Monday of each month for varying programs of entertainment. Once again the club sold nuts and candy at Christmas, enlarging the treasury. Tom Shapiro, S.H.S. National Honor Society member, served as 1960-1961 President of the South Carolina Chapter of the organization.

KEY CLUB

Each Spring over 20 excited sophomore and junior boys are awarded the coveted position as members of the Key Club. To be selected, a student must be chosen by Key Club members, his fellow pupils, as examples of character, citizenship, scholarship, and leadership and approved by the faculty. A student must uphold a C average or better and attend all meetings to remain a member.

The Club participates in many local activities, including the Kiwanis Club, its parent organization, and ushering at Memorial Auditorium. Through their service to the school and the community, members improve their knowledge of duty and responsibility and gain experience in living an exemplary life. Dr. Rice again was advisor to the club this year, guiding its scope of activities.

All Spartan High athletes lettering in football, basketball, baseball, golf, swimming, track, and tennis are invited to join the Block "S" Club. Members strive to promote a high standard for athletes and serve the school.

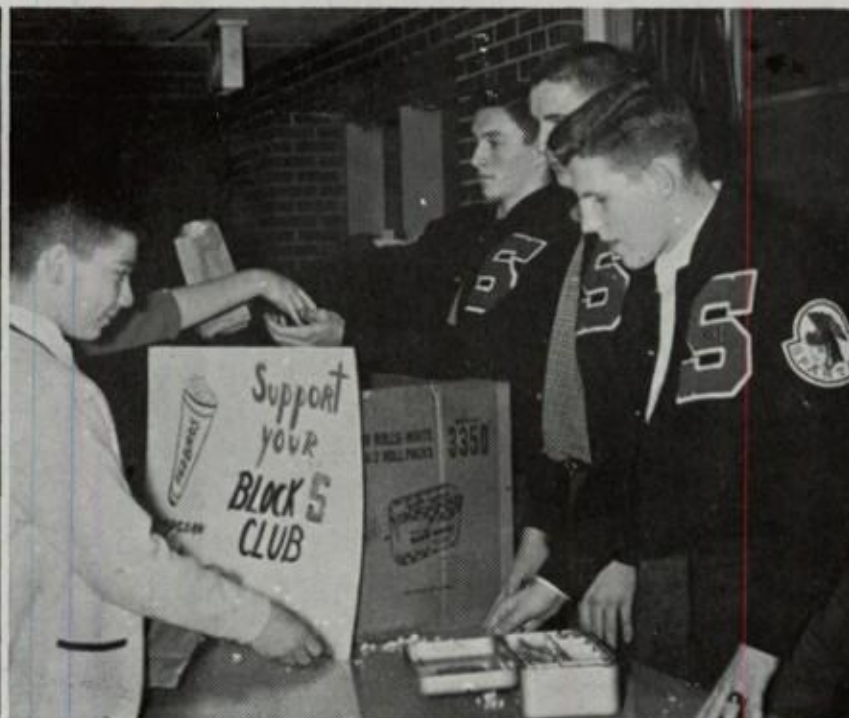

1961's Club thrilled Spartan High with a Donkey Basketball game in which club members played basketball on donkeys against similarly transported coaches. The purpose of the game was to add funds to the club's desire to buy a popcorn machine as a permanent source of income.

Under Coach Wally Dean, its sponsor, the four-year-old group has this year gone one more step in the furthering of high school athletic standards at S.H.S.

OFFICERS. Danny Charles, Secretary; Michael Franke, Vice-President; Billy Epps, President.

Popcorn?! Popcorn, anyone?! Please buy our popcorn.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

The Spartanburg Chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America is composed of students who are taking the D. E. Training Course at S.H.S. Developing future leaders for marketing and distribution is one of its purposes. In 1960, the Spartanburg Chapter received a 3-Star Plaque, the highest rating that can be earned by any South Carolina D. E. Club. This plaque is awarded on a basis of points earned by student participation in many forms of club activity and club projects.

D. E. Club members operate the high school Supply Store.

During the 1960-1961 year the Alpha Hi-Y Club has participated in several useful and rewarding projects. One of these is the World Service Project. It donates $50 to this project each year. The money goes to help the Y.M.C.A. in all parts of the world.

Another project which the club participates in each year is the Goodfellows. This year it gave $10, and in connection with this each member brought some non-perishable food to be distributed by the Salvation Army.

Its last project is that of giving trophies to the outstanding senior who competes in the four spring sports: baseball, tennis, track, and golf.

ALPHA TRI-HI-Y

LORAIN TURNER President
DAVIE LOU MACK Vice-President

THESPIANS

To be a Thespian at S.H.S. requires many hours of hard work in the Drama department. Each prospective Thespian must accumulate 15 points achieved by acting on stage or working back stage in an extra-curricular play. An Honor Thespian status is achieved by obtaining 60 points.

Spartanburg's branch of the National Thespian Society takes part in several state drama functions, including the annual Spring Drama Festival at Winthrop College in Rock Hill.

Mr. Craven Mackie, S.H.S. speech teacher, is the Thespians' advisor, helping the budding actors and actresses grow into dramatic aptness.

CHORUS

Always a smile from Mr. Mabry.

Spartanburg High's most popular elective subject is the chorus, for over 200 girls and boys volunteer their vocal chords for the renowned group.

Mr. John Mabry, Chorus Director, has led the group into state-wide prominence; as a result, members of the singing clan are constantly asked to perform before local and regional professional gatherings.

Students take Chorus five days a week and rehearse out of school often. They are taught vocal technique, music theory, and music appreciation and acquire great experience, singing at school at Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, and graduation. The organization's yearly highlights are the Christmas Music Festival at Memorial Auditorium, this year with Converse and Wofford Choruses, and the Spring Concert in May.

Chorus members both enjoy and appreciate their opportunity to sing, realizing they are broadening their musical sense with one of the best chorale groups in the South.

Gignilliat, Assistant Conductor.

The Spartanburg High School Orchestra, directed by Mr. Henry Janiec and Mrs. Charles Gignilliat, contributes much to the musical activities of S.H.S. The orchestra gives qualified musicians a chance to pursue their ensemble training and at the same time derive pleasure and experience from the many concerts. Many of its members also play in the Spartanburg Symphony. The orchestra participates in performances for installation, Christmas program, Class Day, and graduation.

SPARTANS

In the Autumn of 1960 the band, as well as all of Spartan High, suffered the tragic loss of its inspirational leader, Mr. Richard Dorbritz. Mr. Dorbritz had worked with the band for four years, instructing it, advising its members, aiding some at the Summer Transylvania Music Camp. Through his efforts it attained its high state of efficiency; just a few weeks before his death he had been still working hard to further improve the band.

At Mr. Dorbritz's death, the shocked band came under the capable hands of Mr. Douglas

BAND '60

Howard, former assistant director. It led the Spartanburg Christmas parade in December and participated in other parades throughout the Piedmont. This year its high state wide rank was maintained as six of its members merited membership in the South Carolina All-State Band.

The band provides a great deal of Spartan High's school spirit, enlivening pep rallies, and football games, and presenting an annual concert. This year it even sent a small combo to entertain guest at half-time in home basketball games.

THE SPARTANA

The SPARTANA for 1961 is an ambitious product of students from all three grades of Spartan High. Under the leadership of its editor, Jane Connell, and advisor, Mrs. Ruby E. Alverson, this year returning to Spartanburg High School, the annual's staff has effected a precedent-destroying volume of life at S.H.S.

The SPARTANA's pages have literally been splashed with color, for the SPARTANA's first color picture can be found in this year's album. In addition, tinted pages at intervals throughout the book refresh the SPARTANA's boundless pages of portraits and prose.

The SPARTANA has retained the large size innovated by last year's annual's staff and added several pages to illustrate further S.H.S. at its best.

Students pictured have been harmonized in appearance by their wearing of standard apparel; thus a likeness of a unified student body can be presented. The sale of SPARTANAS has culminated in a record number of subscribers.

Not the least of the 1961 SPARTANA's variations is the fact that its post of "Senior editor" has been filled by twins.

Finally, after a year of diligent, tiring work in composing, compiling, and writing each morsel of spirit and action at Spartan High, the editors have wearily put to rest pen and pencil, camera and art brush, and submitted as a gift to posterity the 1961 SPARTANA.

THE SCRIBBLER

The Scribbler, Spartanburg High's monthly student newspaper, this year chose the Latin motto "Nuntiare et delectare, provocare et inspirare," or "To inform and entertain, to challenge and inspire" to represent its purpose. To this end its combined staff of over sixty students perform the necessary duties of gathering news and selling ads.

The business staff has sold a record number of advertisements to local businesses; so many, in fact, that often it became a problem to place the large number of ads on each page and leave room for news. The reporting circle of the Scribbler followed monthly routine in "digging out" the news and editors themselves sealed the make-up of the paper.

As a result of its continued excellence in journalism, the Scribbler is again a member of the National Scholastic Press Association, the South Carolina Press Association, and the Quill and Scroll.

Crushing Laurens and Sumter by lop-sided margins in pre-season scrimmages, the Crimson Tide of 1960 caused big smiles on the faces of coaches McGinnis, Pike, and Taylor. In these scrimmages the Tide exhibited a factor present in all of their games—hustle and determination.

Filled with this hustle and determination, the Tide put on a superb defensive show in their game with the Byrnes Rebels. The margin of victory proved to be an extra point when a hard rush by the Tide's defensive line caused the extra point attempt by Byrnes to go wide.

In their second game with the Union Yellow Jackets the Tide started out with a bang. They scored early in the first quarter, but Union scored late in the second quarter on a long run. Again the victory margin was an extra point as the strong goal-line defense of the Tide stopped Union's extra point run short of the goal line.

Traveling to Greenwood to meet the Greenwood Emeralds, the Tide found the going rough. Their offense couldn't get going, but their defense again proved itself superb. Two pass interceptions set up Greenwood's scores, but they had to go to the air to score.

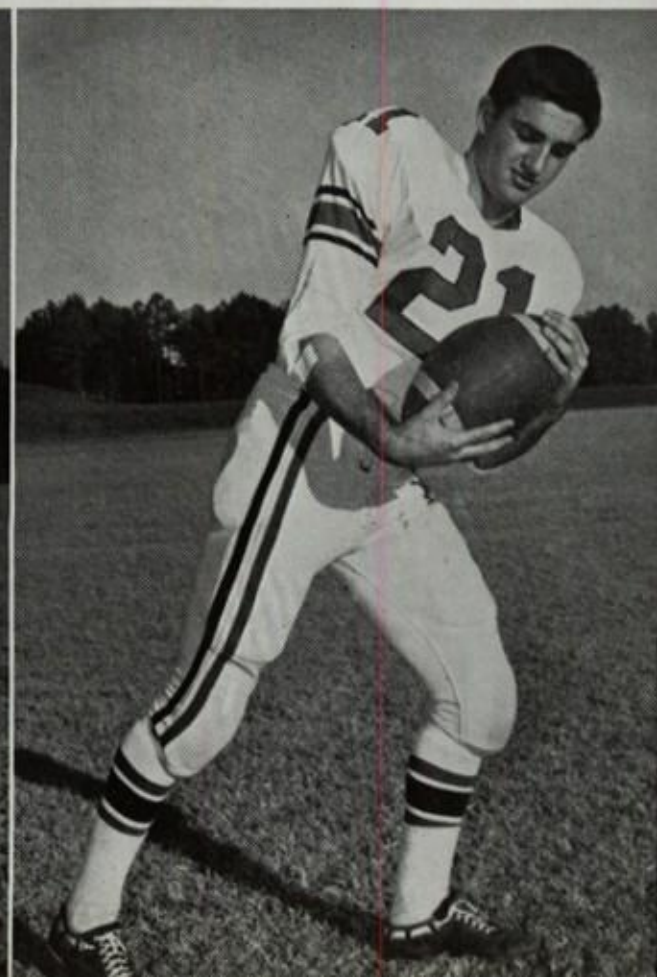

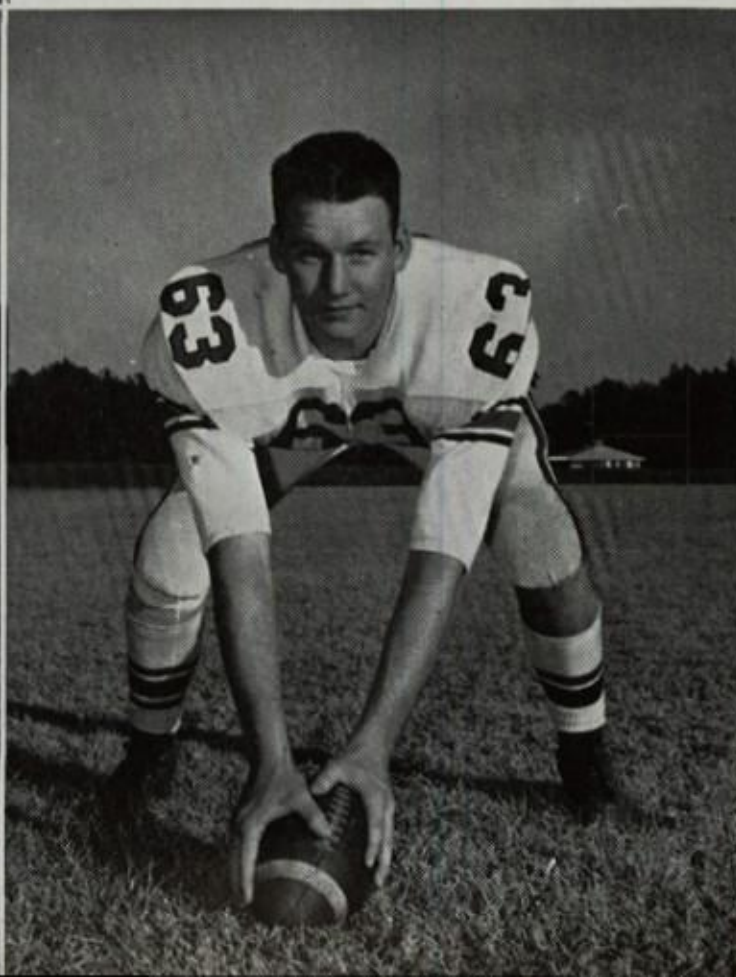

Hard play and determination marked the Tide's contest with the Parker Tornado. They drove within Parker's fifteen-yard line twice during the game but were unable to punch across a touchdown. Parker could not muster a serious scoring threat because of the hard-charging Tide defensive line, ending the game in a deadlock.

Coming home after two weeks on the road, the Tide showed the hometown crowd its desire to win at home. The Rock Hill Bearcats never penetrated deeply into Tide territory; but the Tide offense, after going scoreless for two games, cracked over for a touchdown and a field goal to win their third home game.

Meeting the Gaffney Indians on their home field was like going into a lion's den with a slingshot for the Tide. Both teams battled fiercely throughout the first quarter, neither team being able to move the ball well. The Tide's defensive line was holding the number one team in the state; but like lightning three quick touchdown passes by Gaffney put the Tide out of contention, as they could score only in the last quarter.

Returning home to meet the Greer Yellow Jackets, the Tide appeared as if they had not fully recovered from their loss to Gaffney. The Greer team completely dominated the first half, but coach McGinnis instilled in the Tide their familiar hustle and determination at halftime. Coming back onto the field, the Tide looked like a new team, as they ran Greer all over the field to salvage a tie out of their poor first half showing.

Journeying all the way to Knoxville, Tennessee, to meet Fulton High School, the Tide found they could not get going. Any drive they started found itself stopped by penalties, and the Tide couldn't score until late in the game. Although the Tide found itself on the long end of the statistics, they were on the short end of the score.

A last-second field goal put the team ahead, but a penalty denied us the three points needed to win! Perhaps the most outstanding point of the J. V. Football Team was their spirit. It was not so much their ability as their fierce competitive spirit and desire to win that led them to a fine season, losing only three games. Practicing two and three hours a day under the expert guidance of Coach Richard Gettys, the J. V.s strived hard to perfect their playing and learn the basic fundamentals of football to prepare themselves for future varsity action. Their three losses came at the hands of varsity elevens—Boiling Springs, Blacksburg, and Pacolet. The J. V.s tied the Gaffney J. V.s and defeated Lockhart and Chesnee, varsity teams, and the junior varsities of Byrnes, Parker, and Greer.

The Red Birds of 1961 were no exception in the long line of teams that have been coached by highly respected Coach Wally Dean. The team compiled a regular season record of seventeen wins and two losses. Led by Pinkie Gilchrist and Danny Charles, the Red Birds rolled methodically over their foes until they faced Dreher. In the cracker-box gym at Hand Junior High in Columbia, the Red Birds found they couldn't get started and lost a tough ball game to a very good team. They bounced back immediately to the winning track and didn't lose again until they were defeated by Wade Hampton in the surprise upset of the year. When Dreher visited the Red Birds in the Dobson Gym, they found that the Red Birds are unbeatable at home. This marked the second straight year the Red Birds have remained undefeated on their home court. The Red Birds entered the Upper-State Tournament second-seeded and defeated Parker easily in their first game. But when the Red Birds met Rock Hill, they fell behind too far in the first half; and in spite of their great second half comeback, they lost by two points, shattering their hopes of becoming state champions.

JR. VARSITY BASKETBALL

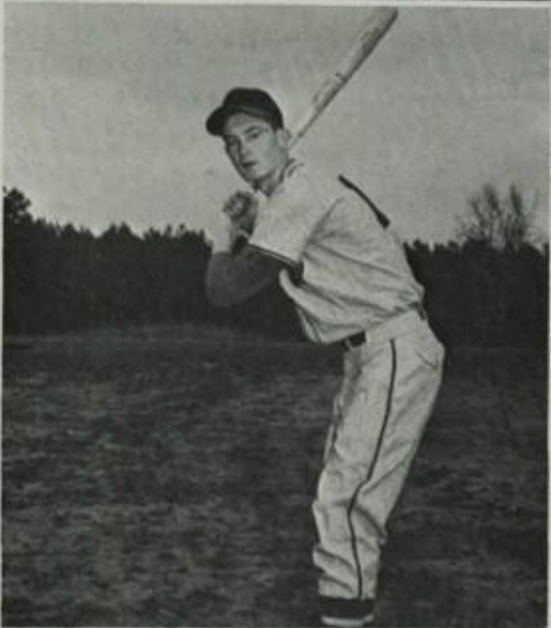

The J. V. basketball team of 1961 showed that it intends to be felt next year in varsity competition. Coached by Coach Joe Pike, the team won 14 games and lost only 5. In learning the basic fundamentals to prepare themselves for the varsity, the J. V.s showed great hustle and spirit in their games and provided many thrills for viewers. They showed their fierce desire to win by fighting until the last buzzer had sounded.

SWIMMING

Perhaps the swimmers of the Spartan High School team are the least noticed of the athletes at Spartan High. Yet members of the swimming team devote more time to practice than any other sport at Spartan High. To be a top-notch swimmer requires hard work and great spirit. The swimmers of the Spartan High swimming team of 1961 are of this type. The team of ten swimmers coached by Alan Gentry will be led by three returning lettermen—Sandy Black, Flip Walker, and Dick Ebert. The swimmers practice two hours a day for four days a week year round at the Converse College pool and are looking forward to having a good year.

BASEBALL

The Spartan High baseball team of 1961 should be one of the strongest in the history of the school. The team will be composed mainly of veterans, having lettermen at every position but one—an outfield post. Lack of pitchers may be a thorn in the Redbirds' side; but Steve Ravan, after doing a fine job last year as a ninth grader, is one of the most promising pitchers the Redbirds have had in several years. Along with Butch Bennett, who has been scouted by several professional scouts, the Redbirds stand to have the finest record in many a year. Coach Marshall Taylor, a successful coach of service baseball, will lend his all to molding a strong team of hustling, spirited players.

Track has only just recently come into its own as an important sport at Spartan High. But, by watching the track team practice, you would think it was the most important sport in the world. Boys on the track team put their all into practice; they work hard to develop themselves into superior track men by training rigorously and working long hours in practice everyday.

The Spartan High tennis team of 1961 will have three returning lettermen to serve as the nucleus of a strong team. These lettermen—Skeet Price, Lindsay Little, and David Hobson—will be backed by the three other players who prove themselves in challenge matches. The players practice at the Spartanburg Country Club, where their home matches are played. These players will be coached by Coach Joe Pike, a man known for his fierce desire to win.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Seniors nose out Juniors in Powder Bowl Game.

The Girls' Athletic Association, under the leadership of Miss Lenora Conner and Miss Elinor Chapman, had a very successful year. The Girls' Athletic Association gives the girls of Spartanburg High School a chance to develop through athletics and companionship a sense of fair play and sportsmanship.

The year's program began with an assembly of all girls interested in the G.A.A. At the conclusion of the year most of these same girls received awards according to the number of years they had belonged to the organization. In order to earn an award the members are required to participate in at least two-thirds of the program and to attend the monthly meetings. The award for the first year is a block "S" and for the second year a club pin. There is a special award for those who participate for the entire three years.

The highlight of this year was the annual Powder Bowl game between the Juniors and Seniors, in which the Seniors triumphed by a score of 14 to 0. During the season the girls also played volleyball, basketball, badminton, and softball.

He won de Tome Mark-Han Player o' de yea' Award fo' Spartanburg County. Dem udder boys did a fine job, too. Ben Willard had trouble wif his leg an' didn' get to play as much as he wuz 'spected to."

"How 'bout yo' basketball team?"
 "De basketball team! Jack, I want chu to unnerstan' we had a basketball team. Our Senior yea' our class had five players in de, er-ruh, constitution o' dis, er-ruh, illustrious ball club—Bobby 'Santa Claus' Tollison, Bobby 'Shotgun' Burgess, Pinky 'Man, whut chu mean I ain't got long arms' Gilchrist, Danny 'Long-Range' Charles, and Ronnie 'Speedo' Coleman. De team had one o' de bes' seasons ever in '61."

"An' we, also, mighty proud o' our baseball, track, tennis, golf, an' swimmin' teams, and de G.A.A.'s and dere Powder Bowl."

"How wuz y'all's school spirit?"

"You mean dat enthusiasm 'boy one's school that swells from wif-in an' causes one to achieve noble deeds or to express his joy in stentorian hurrahs?"

"I guess dat's whut I mean."

"Well, de cheerleaders for our junior year, who wuz members o' de Class o'61, wuz Donna Gentry, Kathy Cohen, and Linda Ballard, and for our senior year, Donna Gentry, Kathy Cohen, Linda Ballard, Parma Lane, and Floride Williams. De cheerleaders, er-ruh, prepared us fo' cheerin' at de many pep rallies held in de Dobson gym, and when we got to de games we cheered, er-ruh, vehemently—dat is, most o' de time."

"The band boosted our spirit by playing at de pep rallies, performin' at ha'f-time at de football games, and pro-dooцин' a pep band for home basketball games. We ain't never gonna fergit dat time Miss Grant led de band in a pep rally at de old school."

"Them dramatics department people put us in, er-ruh, various moods wif such plays as Arsenic an' Ole Lace, Our Horts Wuz Yo'ng an' Gay, and You Cain' Take It Wif Yo'."

"The chorus, er-ruh, inspired us wif dere two cawnserts a yea'. We remembers de rwchestra fo' dere beautiful playin' at de chorus cawnserts, de Stoodent Council Installations, and de Rose Cereremony."

"Hey, Joolyus, whut's a Stoodent Council, whut'd you say, Constellation?"

"Installation, stoopid. Dat's when de presidents o' de homerooms, de classes' presidents, and de Stoodent Council ossifers am installed. In our soph'mo' yea' we elected as president, Wesley Connelly; as vice-president, Dean McKinney; as secretation, Linda Ballard; and as treasurer, Bobby Tollison. When we wuz Juniors, our president wuz Gene Whitlock; our vice-president, Wesley Connelly; our secretation, Cherie Redwine; and our treasurer, Bobby Tollison. Cherie Redwine was also secretation o' de Stoodent Council dat year. For our Senior Yea' at S.H.S. our ossifers wuz Wesley Connelly, president; Michael Franke, vice-president; Linda Ballard, secretation; and Cherie Redwine, treasurer. Dean McKinney was president o' de Stoodent Council and Gene Whitlock was Vice-President o' de Council. and Lindsay Little and Billy Shapiro ran it."

"Who is dat you wuz talking 'bout while ago—dis Rose Cer-Cer—whut'd you say her las' name wuz?"

"Rose Cereremony. But it ain't a girl, boy. It am an occasion dat takes place on Class Day. We watched two senior classes ahead o'us perfawm dis ceremony before it wuz our turn, once in de gym at de 'Ole School' and once in de new Dobson gym. Didn't nobody have not better Rose Cereremony than dis here Class of 1961 did, though. 'You know, talking 'bout all dis done made me, er-ruh, reminisce 'bout our graduation.' 'Say it do, Joolyus?' 'Uh-huh. Dat sho' were a fine night. It sho' wuz inspirin' to feel myself marching up dere wif my classmates to get dat, er-ruh, coveted diploma."

"Man, it sho' look like to me dat v'all had a good time. Whut else'd v'all do?"

"Every Christmas we played Santa Claus to indigent children. Ever'bodv got dere eniovs doin' dat. In our Senior year at, er-ruh, de Yule-Tide, we sold Christmas cards as de Senior class project. We earned a heap o' money, too—$650."

"Every fo' weeks o' our high school career we received a copy o' de Scribbler— dat is, iffen we circumscribed to it."

"But all our days wuzn't happy ones. In de fall o' our soph' mo' yea', we all remembers standing in honor o' Mr. H. R. Dobson. De nex' yea' we all recalls whut a great man he wuz when Mrs. Dobson presented de Dobson Memorial Trophy to our Spartanburg High School."

"We gonna always remembers two things at S.H.S., and dey is dere two speakers to de hi-fi set. We sho' nuff enjoyed dem records during Senior study hall and lunch recess."

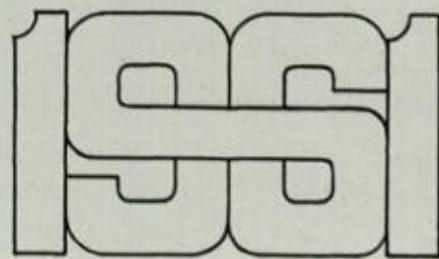

"As gradjooates of S.H.S. we should remember: 1. The thunderin' Crimson Tide; 2. The Red-birds flyin' wide; 3. School Spirit in de air; 4. The Spartan girls so fair; 5. 'Far et Spera' will prevail; 6. The Class of '61 wuz . . . Hail! S.H.S."

"Hey, Joolyus, whut's dis 'Fac et Spera'?"

"Dat's Latin for 'Apply yourself to useful toil and retain an attitude of optimism'."

"Do whu-u-u-t?"

"'Work and Hope,' man, 'Work and Hope'."

STUDENT COUNCIL 1960-1961

This year the Student Council celebrates its twenty-fifth anniversary. It was organized in 1936 to unify students and provide a forum for them to voice their opinions.

Today's council is composed of 42 homeroom presidents, the presidents of the three classes, and the officers of the Student Council. Each Tuesday these 48 people meet with Miss Grant and Dr. Rice to present for the group's consideration the ideas suggested to them by their homeroom "constituents." After the council acts on the proposals, the president reports to his homeroom on Wednesday.

Membership in the Council is a synonym for recognition by one's fellow students. In order to be nominated for the Council a student must have a C average.

This year as the members lit their candles from the traditional candle of knowledge, leadership, and democracy, they pledged the same oath to "support, obey, and defend the laws and ideals of Spartanburg High School, to try to inspire on others a keen sense of responsibility and of loyalty," they complete a quarter of a century of responsible student government at Spartanburg High.

Santa's helpers are hard at work.

Senior Council members ponder over candles.

A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

I realize now that I had a great responsibility and a big job before me when I was named editor of the 1961 SPARTANA; but as I near the end of the long, rough road which has been mine, I am filled with an awareness of the many pleasure-filled and rewarding experiences I have had; and I am grateful for the many wonderful people who have lightened my load by their helpfulness and understanding.

My thoughts first turn to my advisor, Mrs. Ruby Alverson, whose expert advice and untiring effort made possible the publication of the 1961 yearbook. To her I would like to express my deepest appreciation.

Mr. Willis, our photographer, deserves recognition for his good work in taking pictures for the book. Throughout the year his patience, his willingness to come to school on short notice, and his working long hours to conform to our schedule have never ceased.

We appreciate the cooperation of the teachers and administration in excusing members of the staff at times from classes to do pressing SPARTANA work and for making SPARTANA announcements. The students have been most cooperative in every way.

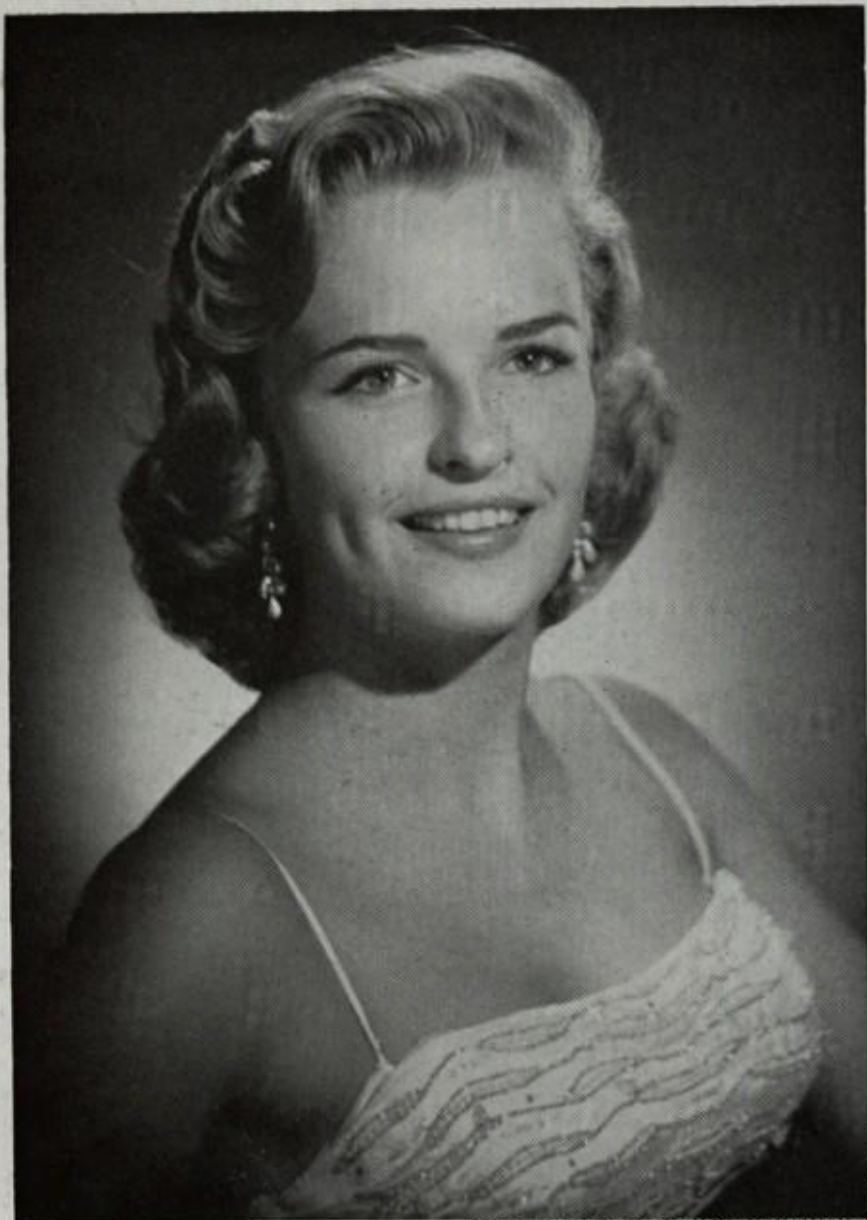

Last, but certainly not least, I sincerely thank the entire SPARTANA staff for their good work in doing their specific jobs and in selling enough ads and subscriptions to pay for this book.

And to you, I hope you enjoy this yearbook, and it will prove to be a true and complete, and entertaining record of the school year 1960-61.

Dear Jane,

Thank you so much for the honor of being selected to judge the beauties in the 1961 SPARTANA.

The choices were extremely difficult to make; however, I finally reached the decisions that are designated on the photographs enclosed. If it were up to me, I would like to make each girl the winner.

With best wishes to the SPARTANA staff, and to the winners, and to the students of Spartanburg High School.

Sincerely,

Tootsie,

You are a very cute and smart girl. I have enjoyed you doing most of my homework this year. Let's just hope we have some classes together next year. Remember the good times we had talking about ~~much~~^{much} in Miss Ferguson's class. I hope you have the best of luck life has to offer. Remember the stop sign that ~~Shirley~~^{Shirley} didn't stop for. I hope you have a wonderful future.

Joyce,

Oh yeah, I forgot to thank you for giving me Happy. She will always bring me happiness just as I hope ~~Happy~~^{Happy} will bring you happiness. I have truly enjoyed eating your mother's strawberry preserves. Remember that picture of you that disappeared. Maybe someday it will come back to you. Let's hope so.

Love,
